Vocational Scenario or Context	Globalisation has resulted in many challenges for businesses. Some businesses have not been able to meet these challenges and have ceased to trade. Your own business is considering trading with other trading nations and so will face similar challenges. Your manager has asked you to help prepare a report that is to be presented to the owners of the business that compares and contrasts the factors that influence trade between your own country and one other contrasting country.

Task 1	You are to prepare a report that critically examines the factors influencing the global economy and the impact of these factors on the economies of two contrasting countries. You will need to collect relevant and current market data and trends from two contrasting countries to support your findings. The report should be written in two sections: Section One: ● identify and explain the positive and negative factors that influence growth or decline in business activities ● explain which factors impact the global economy and which primarily impact specific markets or countries.
